les Cempany, just south of Jewell's mill. The new covered pier at Martin's stores will accommodate the coffee ships, and the tracks will permit their carsos to be loaded direct into cars.

Bo far, nothing has been done at the dilapidated Baite stores and piers, where another transfer bridge, it is said, will be erected. This will connect with the United States elevator, Union, Robinson's and Beard's stores and Dow's elevators, and so get over the difficulties that would arise in crossing Hamilton or Altantic-ave.

POWERS OF THE ALDERMEN.

THEIR RIGHT TO REDUCE A BOARD OF ESTIMATE APPROPRIATION QUESTIONED.

THE WORK OF THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION WOULD BE CRIPPLED IF THAT ALLOW

ANCE IS CUT DOWN. The temporary injunction obtained on Monday from Justice Clement, of the Supreme Court, restraining the Board of Aldermen from reducing the appropriation of the Board of Estimate for the purof the Civil Service Commission for the year 1897, was made returnable on Thursday, but Cor-Counsel Burr said he would be ready to argue the matter before that time, and Justice Clement changed his order so as to make the mo-tion returnable yesterday. It was heard before Justice Dickey. The action is brought by Alexander E. Orr. the president of the Civil Service Commission; Truman J. Backus, Edward B. Jor dan, Willam G. Low and J. Warren Greene. All sue as taxpayers, although all are members of the Commission except Mr. Low and Mr. Greene, and they are ex-members.

injunction was obtained on behalf of the plaintiffs by Henry Yonge, who appeared to argue the motion. Mr. Yonge stated that the Board of Estimate had allowed $15,00 for the expenses of the Commission for the year 1897, after cutting down the appropriation asked for from $25,000. This estimate, with others, was referred to a committee of the Board of Aldermen, who had decided to cut it further to $5,000. He declared that the proposed action of the Aldermen in reducing the allowance to the Commission was collusive, corrupt and done for the purpose of defeating the law as stated in Constitution and the statutes. It was provided there that competitive examinations should be the basis of appointments to civil positions, and that if not more than $5,000 was appropriated for the commission it would be absolutely impossible for It to carry on its work. The charter of the city gave the Board of Aldermen power in their dis retion to reduce the allowances made by the Board of Estimate to the various city departments But they were directed to exercise their might be enforced. It must be exercised in good faith and in accordance with the law. Mr. Yonge occlared that to reduce the allowance of the Board of Estimate would not be an action in good faith, and that it would absolutely prevent the carrying out of the provisions of the Constitution and the statutes. If the Mayor's salary was $10,000 and the Board of Estimate allowed that amount, and then the Board of Aldermen reduced it to $500, the facts would simply have to be presented to a court to show that the proceeding of the Aldermen had been in bad faith.

The case was identical with the Civil Service Commission. It was absolutely impossible for them to get along with less than $15,000. Their department was the only one in the cliv which did not employ a sacnographer, and the clerks were overworked and might be enforced. It must be exercised in good was the only one in the cirk which did not employ a saenographer, and the clerks were overworked and underpald. The members of the Commission themselves, who do not receive a cent of campensation from the city, had been compelled to attend the examinations, act as examiners, and then take the papers home and correct them. It was not right that they should be compelled to do so, but it was the only way in which the eligible lists which the law required could be prepared. If that was necessary when the money appropriated for the work of the Commission amounted to about $2.00 a year, it would be absolutely impossible for anything to be done if there was but $2.00 to do it with. The law provided that the Commission should certify all payrolls of city employes, and that most of the appropriate flow. The law provided that the Commission had no money, the lists would not be prepared and the payrolls and no new appointments should be made from eligible lists prepared by them. If the Commission had no money, and no new appointments could be legally made. Mr. Yonge said that if the Board of Aldermen had the power to so improperly cut down the appropriation for the City. Service Commissioners that of the power to so improperly cut down the appropriation for the City. Service Commissioners that of the Hoard of Aldermen have not exercise an honest discretion in the matter? 'said Justice Dickey.

"That is it, exactly," said Mr. Yonge.

"Well, do you ask the court to fix the amount of the appropriation of the Board of Estimate, which I show by affidavits to be absolutely necessary for the conduct of the business of the Commissioners and a prominent Republican, received a letter a short time ago from one of the Board of Aldermen have not exercise an honest discretion in the Board of Aldermen to reduce this sum arbitrarily the court has no power to intervene, but by a reasonable reading of the charter I do not think the Hoard has any such power. If the said is the president of the New-York dewellers' Association, I concede that

POLITICS IN BROOKLYN.

A SERIOUS SPLIT SAID TO BE DIVIDING THE M'LAUGHLIN RING.

THE REASON FOR THE REVOLT IS THAT MANY

HAND WHEN THE GREATER NEW-YORK IS A FACT.

Some keen observers of political life in Kings County say that they see in the present revolt of several of Hugh McLaughlin's lieutenants something more than a mere split in the Willoughby Street ring-something more than a mere protest against "boss rule." They predict that this break is really the beginning of a war of extermination between the old McLaughlin ring on the one hand and Tammany Hall in this part of the Greater

New-York on the other hand. McLaughlin, York and Shevlin watched with the movement for municipal union which resulted in the passage of the consolidation act. The aged "hoss" realized that it rang the knell of his supremacy in Brooklyn. If the two cities were made one, he knew that two distinct Democratic muchines could not exist side by side, each preme in its part of the same city. He knew that Tammany Hall, cruel and exacting, would reach out to embrace the entire municipality, and that he would be compelled to become either a mere district leader or be driven from the councils of the party.

ome of McLaughlin's leaders, on the contrary, have had no such fear of Tammany. and military discipline of the New-York City Democracy fascinated them, and, recognizing the inevitable, they have placed themselves in a cost-tion to become chiefs in Tammany districts.

of those who "bolted" McLaughlin in Buffalo was Warden Patrick Hayes, It was Hayes who fought so long and unsuccessfully to have the al Democratic party abandon the ward organiza tion and adopt the Assembly district or Tamenany It is no secret, the wise ones say, that he aspired and still aspires to be the leader of the IXth Assembly District, which embraces his Thirteenth Ward and parts of the Nineteenth and Fourteenth wards, Mr. Hayes has been as industrious for a year in attempting to control the Nineteenth Ward as he has his own ward.

James W. Ridgway has been open in his declarations that the Vth Assembly District should have Tammany association, and, indeed, some move ment was made toward organizing one. There was a story circulated about three months ago to the effect that Ridgway had been in consultation with Tammany men concerning it.

The other prominent leaders in the present "bolt are Delmar, Coffey and Ryan, and when the Greater New-York is an accomplished fact there will be surarise if they do not assume the responsibility of prise it they do not assume the representations ago, when Hayes, Coffey and Ryan and a few others are said to have combined to control the nominations for Sheriff, County Clerk and Register next year. Ryan has never forgiven the "Old Man" for not letting him have the Shrievaity nomination in 183. The division this time will result in Ryan getting the nomination for Sheriff, Hayes controlling the County Clerk nomination and some Western District man receiving the nomination for Register. John L. Shea wants to be McLaughin's candidate for Sheriff, and there will be a big clash in the County Convention.

The application was opposed by Corporation Counsel Burr, who argued for some time that the courthad no jurisdiction to interfere with the action of the Aldermen Mr. Burr contended that the act of the Aldermen in reducing the appropriation to the Civil Service Commission was legislative, and therefore not subject to review. It might be grossly wrong, it might be done in bad faith, but the court had nothing to do with it. Mr. Burr cived a number of authorities to support his contention. Decision was reserved. of them are misguided and apparently honest men. They do not represent the solid business men of the West, except when they are directly interested in the silver mining industry, or have all their trade and business with silver men. I only know one jeweller, who is a Bryan man, and visiting commer cial travellers in our business state most emphati-cally that they cannot find a jeweller that is for Bryan, and these men travel through lows, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri.

Kansas is said to be doubtful and contains many Populists. Nebraska is safe for McKinley, for money, marbles or chalk. Iowa will be solld for good money and good government, and old Missour will be the same this year. The Western States are will be the same this year. The Western States are suffering from the withdrawal of money. Loans of every kind-farm or bank or trust company—are withdrawn whenever possible. They have therefore come to the conclusion that there is not enough money in the country and that there is not enough money in the country and that they must have more, forgetting to ask themselves how they are going to get a share of this or how a Government can put it in their hands without an equivalent. This dissatisfied bedy of people, known as 'Pops,' had many good grounds for dissatisfaction in Nebraska, such as the extravagance of the State Government. They succeeded a few years ago in obtaining control of the State Legislature and they elected a 'Pop' Governor, etc. They began by passing laws making it a very slow and tedious process to collect a loan or foreclose a mortgage, so that capital was withdrawn. This was the first step that these inhabitants of a new and money-needing country took to help themselves, instead of making capital more secure and the interest less. The minority of the people, who were besiness men and borrowed wisely and did not go beyond their sure means of repayment, are the successful men of Nebraska to-day. The silver men do not seem to understand the great underlying principle of confidence, for the lack of which they are now suffering. To this great principle they are as blind as the Democrate who had the clause in the Wilson bill inserted putting a tariff on diamonds of 2-per cent, in spite of all the wisdom of the business men who knew. Their motto seems to be: Eat the cake to-day. Let us be merry, for to-morrow is not yet here.' A cross of silver means a bod of thorus and a greater panic than we have ever seen in all our history." suffering from the withdrawal of money. Loans of the letter of John Boyd Thacher and by John (Sheehan's letter to Mr. Thacher was the talk of town yesterday. Republicans simply smiled and added several thousand to their estimates of the Republican majority in this State. The Democrats, on the other hand, "cussed" themselves their fellow-Democrats, John Boyd Thacher and the world in general. Those who had voted for Thacher in the State Convention were seeking ex-Thacher in the State Convention were seeking excuses for their action, but found few satisfactory ones, while the radical silverites, who had been suspicious of Thacher from the first, directed soon and contempt at the machine followers who had netwocated Thacher.

POPOCRATS ARE DEMORALIZED.

MUCH APATHY SHOWN IN THE PREPARATIONS FOR TO NIGHT'S DEMONSTRATION.

6,250 actively engaged in politics has the Democratic 2,025 party in Kings County been so thoroughly and ompletely demoralized as it is at the present time And this is the day on which the party's candidate for the Presidency is to enter the city and sweep all things before him. The managers of the brokendown organization have been so busy fillting among themselves over the remnants of the party since their return to Brooklyn that they have had little time to make arrangements for the Bryan demonstration. But they announced last night 250 that everything was in readiness for the coming of their idol. Bernard J. York, chairman of the 350 Campaign Committee, has done the greater part of the work in arranging for the Bryan meeting. and he has been greatly handicapped by apathy prevailing in the ranks of the silverites speakers and those who attend the meeting to night will have an opportunity to listen to interesting, if not convincing, oratory.

Mingled with the talk of Thacher's attitude and the deplorable condition of the party were rumors about the fight inside the regular organization, and especially that part of it which has to do with the struggle between Bernard J. York and John Delmar for a place on the State Committee. Mr. Delmar and his friends said some unkind things about Mr. York, while Mr. York pleaded that he was too busy to talk about such affairs because of the overshadowing importance of the Bryan demonstration, for the success of which he will be held, in a large measure, responsible.

Mr. Bryan will reach Brooklyn late this afternoon, and before his speaking engagement for the evening he will be entertained by Frank Abbott at the Hotel Margaret. The speakers at the Academy of Musle will be Mr. Bryan and Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky. As soon as Mr. Bryan has finished his speech he will address the crowd, if there he one, in Montague-st., and will then go to the Rink to address the 'labour meeting.' Before he speaks there, addresses will be made by John Brisben Walker. Joseph R. Buchanan and Charles Frederick Adams Frederick Loweli will conduct the singing at the second meeting. Major McNulty has bought a large number of small American flags, which will be given out to all comers at the Rink Neither the Academy nor the Rink will be decorated in any manner whatever.

WOMEN BEGIN THEIR CAMPAIGN. THEY ORGANIZE A REPUBLICAN UNION LEAGUE WITH MRS. WOODRUFF AT ITS HEAD.

The auxiliary campaign of education with the women of Brooklyn at the helm was begun yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Winslow, No. 712 Lafayette-ave., when the Woman' Republican Union League of Brooklyn was organof New-York, a member of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Republican Association of the State of New-York, in organization. She gave some excellent advice in getting campaign machinery in working order.

When Mrs. Pierce had the meeting well under way, the election of officers was held, with these results:

Mrs. Timothy L. Woodruff, president; Mrs. V. C. Titcomb, first vice-president; Mrs. John Winslow, second vice-president; Mrs. A. J. Perry, third vicepresident; Dr. Charlotte Wooley, recording secre tary; Miss Kate M. Bostwick, corresponding secreand Miss Minnie Hurley, treasurer.

Executive Committee-Mrs. Charles H. Winslow, hairman; Mrs. R. B. Gwillim, Mrs. Charles Fisk Mrs. A. A. Wray, Mrs. S. B. Huyler, Mrs. Frederick broeder and Mrs. C. P. Abbey. About twenty women were present. They included

Mrs. Woodruff was not present at the meeting. She was detained at home entertaining Frank S. Black and his wife. Ways and means of reaching the workingmen were discussed, the debate occupying most of the afternoon. The pian is that the women will open schools of instruction in the various districts, and by means of campaign literature and simple talks will instruct that portion of the masses who adhere to silver views. These schools will be open at night, One of the women remarked that it wouldn't pay to waste time in instructing the Republican voters for they were all right. Mrs. Fierce in her talk supplemented this by saying that women were naturally better instructors than men, because they could grasp simple truths better and present them more graphically than men. This assertion struck home, and thereat the women complimented themselves by declaring that it was so. Campaign literature will be printed in different languages, and armed with these tracts the members of the association will invade tenement-homes morning, noon and night throughout the remainder of the campaign, and instruct the wives while their husbands are at work. Their influence will be so potent, the members declare, that the husbands will forego the corner saloon and other places of amusement at night and attend the schools instead. Next Tuesday a meeting is to be held at Grand Union Hall, Court-st. between De Graw and Harrison sts., at 3 o'cloc' at which Miss Helen Varick Boswell, of the association, will speak.

A number of congratulatory telegrams were read by Miss Bostwick. A big mass-meeting will be held

WORKINGMEN FOR M'KINLEY.

The Workmen's Republican Club, of the Fourteenth District of the Twenty-fourth Ward met last night at the campaign headquarters of the district. No. 2.064 Pacific-st., near Saratoga-ave Henry Dieckman presided and William R. Ethorn was secretary. After several new members had signed the roll President Disckman introduced Samuel H. Drew, who spoke at considerable length on the principles of finance.

Mr Dieckman said that, although the Democratic party had carried the district last year by six arty had carried the district last year by six otes, fully 150 workingmen had enrolled them-ives in the Republican organization, a large pro-ortion of whom were formerly Democrats. He as confident that the district would return a large ajority on Election Day for McKiniey and Hobart ad sound money.

MELODIES FOR BRYAN.

William Jennings Bryan is partial to "Home Sweet Home." It will be sung to-night at the Bryan meeting in the Academy of Music by large chorus. The song was rehearsed at Apollo Hall, in Court-st., last evening. So was the "American Marseillaise" and other songs, calculated to agitate the savage breast of the Populistic candilate with mingled emotions.

The Bryan and Sewall Club, with which Mira-

The Bryan and Sewall Club, with which Mira-beau L. Towns and Senator McNulty are con-nected, had engaged Professor Silas B. Pratt and Mr. Ewall, and there was an evening of melody Passers-by on the street heard the sound of song nostairs, but few of them investigated the cause. If they had, they would have discovered a chorus of twenty or thirty voices, including seven or eight souranos. This was all there was of a hundred-voice chorus which Professor Pratt had endeav-cred to gather together. After a while the lights were put out and the hall was left in darkness.

TROUBLE OVER A SALE OF FURNITURE. Justice Goetting, in the Lee Avenue Court, yesterday remanded Henry Marks, a shipping clerk, liv-ing at No. 287 South First-st., for trial on a charge of grand larceny. Marks was formerly employed by Morris B. Evans, at No. 379 Grand-st. His arrest was brought about by Benjamin Marks, who lives Marks. Some time ago Benjamin Marks purchased furniture for $47 on the instalment plan, and sold it t is alleged, to Kraemer & Wagner, of No. 18 Graham-ave. Benjamin Marks was then arrested for selling mortgaged property, and is still awaiting trial. When arrested he told the police that Henry Marks, who was then shipping clerk, knew about the sale at the time. He, too, was then arrested. He denied the charge.

There is $12,000 in the bank credited to Stephen M. Hoye, a lawyer, who has been holding it a number of years waiting for a claimant. He came into possession of it when Arthur S. McCaffrey, of Ramsen-st., asked him to settle up his father's and mother's estate, the united deposits of which represented more than $12,000. The books were in the name of Maria Kiernan, and Mr. McCaffrey said he had no idea as to where she is. She had been a client of his father's and had trusted him thoroughly, and finally left her bank books with him for safekeeping.

AUTUMN HATS ADMIRED.

All day long yesterday a stream of women passed through the millinery parlors of Abraham & Straus, examining the display of beautiful h always to be seen there at the fall opening. Not only were the hats themselves objects of admiration, but the tasteful way in which the parlors were fitted up attracted general comment. furniture was nearly all new, and was beautifully carved, and many of the hats rested on handsomely carved pedestals. One of these latter especwith a draped scarf of the wood, almost divided attention with the bonnets. The hats continue to be broad this fall, but the full ruching that has been worn does not seem to be in so much favor as the plainer hats. Among the theatre hats one of the most striking was of oxbloed-red velvet, with ribbon to match, and was trimmed with chrysanthemums, having a steel ornament and white algrette. A pretty English waking hat was trimmed with a knotted slik braid and had a scarf of coarse net.

BICYCLE HIGHWAYMEN FRIGHTENED OFF.

Adrien C. Hegeman, a real estate dealer, of Bath Beach, had an adventure with highwaymen last night that was thoroughly up to date. Mr. Hegeman, whose office is in Bath-ave., near Bay Eighteenth-st., is well-to-do, and he usually carries large sums of money around with him. Last evening he mounted his wheel, intending to ride to Bensonhurst, where he had an engagement to meet a customer at 7 o'clock. While he was wheeling along through Harway-ave. a large stone was thrown at him, striking the frame near the sprocket. The shock threw Mr. Hegeman to the ground, and as he arose to his feet two men ran out from behind the trees along the road and commanded him to "Hold up his hands."
